

Otavalo Indian Market (8 hours)

Otavalo Indian Market

We begin this excursion travel towards the north of Quito. We will stop in the small town of Calderón to visit and know the famous bread dough figures

Afterwards travel through the Andes and its spectacular landscapes we will visit the Middle of the world and the Quitsato project to know more about the Equator Line and the movements of the sun.

We will arrive at the viewpoint of San Pablo Lake that welcomes us to the province of Imbabura. We continue to the city of Otavalo where you will have time to walk through the colorful craft stalls. Here we can buy crafts and bargain for the best price with the local indigenous sellers.

We will then visit the workshops of Andean instruments, fabrics and hats in the communities of Peguche and Ilumán before continuing to the city of Cotacachi and visit the Cotacachi lagoon.

Lunch and time to buy fine leather goods in the town. In the afternoon we will back of the city of Quito.

Included:

- ▶ Private transportation
- ▶ Professional Tourism Guide

- ▶ Lunch
- ▶ Entrances fee to attractions
- ▶ Excursions and activities

Departure: Daily

Schedule: 08h00 - 16h00

Price:
1 Person	2 Persons	3 - 5 Persons	6 - 9 Persons	+ 10 Persons
276 USD	170 USD	130 USD	100 USD	79 USD

If you want to book this tour, request additional information or information of other available programs, please contact with Patricio Gaybor pato@chooselatam.com , Phone: (593) 999 842 256