

Full Day Quito (City Tour + Middle of the World) (8 hours)

Quito & Middle of the World

Quito, was the first city in the world to be declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1978. It offers visitors beautiful squares, churches and buildings dating from the sixteenth century to date.

We will take you to its historical center to observe and admire the Plaza Grande and its surrounding buildings: the Government, Municipal (City Hall) and Bishop palaces, as well as the Metropolitan Cathedral, the church of the Company of Jesus with its magnificent art exhibition and Baroque architecture, The imposing monastery of San Francisco one of the biggest religious complex in South America.

We continue north towards the monument that marks latitude 0° 00 '00 "better known as the Equator line and locally as the "Mitad del Mundo ". Here you can literally put your feet in both hemispheres of the planet. This program also includes a visit to the Inti Ñan museum, a very friendly, fun and educational place to learn about the influence of the equatorial line in daily life.

As an alternative to this visit, after visiting the old city, you can visit a museum tour, visit the Botanical Garden or visit the cable car
